

Quinn Coleman joins First Bank of the Lake

Annemarie Murphy, Executive Vice President, President of SBA Lending at First Bank of the Lake announced today that Quinn Collins Coleman has joined its Small Business Administration (SBA) Lending team as Vice President, SBA Senior Business Development Officer. In this role, Coleman will be responsible for creating SBA Loan opportunities in solar/renewable energy projects throughout the country.

Coleman joined First Bank of the Lake's SBA team in January 2022. He has over 8 years of experience in Commercial Lending in the 13 state Appalachian region, specializing in start-up financing, renewable energy, breweries, alternative agriculture, and commercial real estate. He specializes in SBA 7(a), SBA 504 loans and USDA loans. "We are excited Quinn has joined our team," stated Murphy. "Quinn is a top performer who has proven knowledge and expertise in SBA lending and specifically in the solar and renewable energy industries."

Coleman earned a bachelor's degree in International Relations & Political Science from the University of North Carolina Wilmington in 2009 and his master's degree in International Development from Portland State University in 2013. He earned a post-secondary service-learning certificate in 2013 and participated in various RMA related training from 2013 to 2021. In 2021, he earned a solar lending professional certificate from the University of New Hampshire. He is a member of the Land Conservation Loan Program Investment Committee, board member for Out at the Movies and board member for Reap More than You Sow. "In my role as an SBA Business Development Officer, I am a resource for all businesses, especially those interested in obtaining financing for solar and renewable energy projects," stated Coleman. "I'm excited to join this incredible team of dedicated and talented lenders, focused on helping entrepreneurs grow their businesses." Coleman is located in Winston-Salem, North Carolina.
